

PRAYING FOR THE SPIRIT TO LOVE, HEAL, AND RENEW

Like Moses, the prophets, and Jesus Christ,
we look ahead to the Promised Land,
and proclaim the Kingdom of God.

*We envision a world healed and reconciled,
a world where swords become plowshares,
a world where children do not hunger for their daily bread,
a world where racism and prejudice no longer exist,
a world where the sick and injured are cared for,
a world where justice, righteousness, and peace reign.
We envision God's shalom, and as disciples of Jesus Christ,
we strive to bring this vision to life in and around us.*

God of promise, we thank you for your vision of a new world, a vision that gives us hope and fills us with purpose.

*By the spirit of the living Christ,
we pray that we may love, heal, and renew your hurting world.
In Christ's name, we pray. Amen.*

PRAYING FOR OURSELVES, ONE ANOTHER, AND THE WORLD

REFLECTING SILENTLY UPON OUR LIVES

In silence and stillness, reflect on who has arrived for worship this morning.
What thoughts and feelings, joys and concerns, have you brought with you?

SHARING OUR JOYS AND CONCERNS

If the Spirit is moving you to share a thought or feeling, joy or concern, please do so now, so we may lift it together in prayer.

READING AND REFLECTING

READING FROM THE BIBLE

John 1: 1-14

REFLECTING

There are two things in life that are uniquely yours. First, your existence, and secondly, your unique experience. Both occur in the realm of relationship in which a constellation of relationships shape, inform, influence, and ultimately determine (non-fatalistically), the quality (or lack thereof) of your life experience. This means, in effect, that life is the sum total of all the various relationships we will ever experience in our lifetime.

Rodney Eugene Alexander

In learning to take care of our relationships with lovers, friends, colleagues, helpers, and those whom we are helping, we are obligated to honor, rather than abuse, one another's feelings. This requires us to be really present, rather than acting out roles we have socialized, professionalized, or otherwise been taught to play. To be really present with another, we must experience ourselves as connected with the other in mutually empathic and empowering ways.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Tom VandeStadt has a new church e-mail address:
pastorccaucc@gmail.com

Our adult Christian education class meets at 10:00 am on Sunday mornings in the adult CE room on the second floor.

The Building Community Task Force (Task Force 1) is planning to roll out the "Activity Directory" on September 8. The Activity Directory is based on the survey many (over 40!) of us filled out near the start of the year, and will provide groupings of folks by common interest in various activities in order to facilitate group interactions outside of Sunday services. Before doing so, we wanted to give everyone one last chance to fill out the survey so that they can be included (if they wish) in the directory. We continue to have paper copies at usher's station which you can give to Faye Dierksen or John Goff.

On Sunday, September 15, after worship, we will gather for a Congregational Meeting to discuss and make a decision on the proposal to work with Posada Esperanza to house and support in our church building, for a period of several weeks to two months, a family legally seeking asylum. The team working on the planning and logistics will give a report, and then we will have our discussion and make our decision.

On Sunday, September 29, after worship, those of us reading the book Evicted, Poverty and Profit in the American City, by Matthew Desmond, will gather to discuss the book. Evicted won the Pulitzer Prize in 2017, and Mathew Desmond was the keynote speaker at the UCC General Synod this summer.
