Our baptismal bowl is there for you to dip your fingers in God's Living Water as a baptismal reminder that you are created in God's image and loved wholly just as you are! You are also invited to take a prayer ribbon (symbolizing the prayers you bring with you today) and tie it to the prayer net to remind us that God holds the collective prayers of creation together in God's love for all of creation.

Good morning, Congregational Church of Austin. Why have you come to worship this morning?

We have come to abide in God through music, prayers, thought, and fellowship.

The Gospel of John uses the word, "abide," as an invitation to remain connected to God even during the most difficult times in our lives.

If we abide in God, we are tapping into the nourishing opportunities God provides like the vine that nourishes the branches in order to bear fruit.

But the fruit of our branches is not comprised of more work, more success, or more accomplishments.

The fruit of our branches is God's love that has the capacity to empower all of us to live into who God has created us to be as God's Beloved Community.

So come, friends and neighbors, and let us abide in God together.

Come, let us worship God!

Reading of the Hebrew Scriptures          Psalm 22:25-31          Dave Ross

From you comes my praise in the great congregation; my vows I will pay before those who fear God. The poor shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek God shall praise the Lord. May your hearts live forever! All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord; and all the families of the nations shall worship before God. For dominion belongs to the Lord, and God rules over the nations. To God, indeed, shall all who sleep in the earth bow down; before God shall bow all who go down to the dust, and I shall live for God. Posterity will serve God; future generations will be told about the Lord, and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn, saying that he has done it.

Reading of the Christian Scriptures          John 15:1-8          Rev. Ginny

I am the true vine, and my Divine Parent is the vine-grower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit She prunes to make it bear more fruit. You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you.

Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me.

I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. My Divine Parent is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.

This is the spirit of God's love. Thanks be to God.
