Friends and neighbors, why have you come to worship this morning?

We come, like Zacchaeus, to experience Christ's liberating love in music, scripture, and the embrace of one another.

And like Zacchaeus, Christ invites himself to be our guest in our sanctuary, home, and heart.

There is no extra cleaning or preparations necessary! Jesus comes to receive us as we are for all people to flourish! Woohoo!

In order for all people to flourish, we must be nourished in the bread of life and the cup of Christ's liberating love.

So come, let us worship God, who nourishes us to flourish together!

Reading of the Christian Scriptures          Luke 19:1-10          Rev. Ginny

He entered Jericho and was passing through it. A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax-collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to see him, because he was going to pass that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, 'Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today.' So he hurried down and was happy to welcome him. All who saw it began to grumble and said, 'He has gone to be the guest of one who is a sinner.' Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Look, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor; and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I will pay back four times as much.' Then Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Child of Humanity came to seek out and to save the lost.'

This is the spirit of God's love. Thanks be to God.
